This workshop will provide participants with:

- Hands-on practice using quick, easy to use assessment tools for understanding challenging behaviors.
- Next steps for identifying areas in a person’s day when they may be “getting stuck” and additional supports are needed.
- Tips for decreasing power struggles & challenging situations.
- Tips for increasing skills- communication, hygiene, completing tasks, social interactions and more!

Date:

June 11, 2015

Time:

10:00am-2:30pm

Location:

Salem, Oregon

Registration/Cost:

- $100.00 per person- Workshop materials provided.

Payment must be received by June 2, 2015

- Sign up on OTAC’s website: http://goo.gl/ViCW88
  - Select the course title for this event
- Contact, Sheri Stephen, training coordinator:
  - 503-364-9943 x221; sstephen@otac.org

This training is limited to 20 participants